COMPLAINT AGAINST PREACHERS. A complaint against the so-called religious meetings which are held at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Seventh screet, Washington, has been received by the District Commissioners from W. R. Chipley, of 507 Sixth street, northwest, Mr. Chipley objects to these meetings and to the fact that collections are taken by those holding

"I desire to call your attention," says the writer, "to an evil which I think needs to be abolished. At the trianguneeds to be aboished. At the triangular space at the corner of the Avenue and Seventh street are held every night in the week, including Sunday, what are termed Christian religious meetings. So far as the word 'Christian' is concerned, I will state it is only a suppositional triangular term what is preached tion. I can only term what is preached there as 'religious dry rot,' which is calculated not only to not attract people to the Saviour but disgusts both saint and sinner alike and cast reproach upon the cause so dear to the hearts of all true believers. You can hear almost anything preached there except salvation and repentance." The Commissioners have approach have approved a recommendation made by Maj. Sylvester that the police will have the placing of signs and benches on the reservation stopped as a violation of the law and that any and all persons making collections while holding meet-ings will be promptly suppressed.

Rana Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Yi, ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and operationally afterwards." Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by Richard Gibson.

ENSTRUAL irregularities are generally the beginning of a woman's troubles. With the vitality at a low ebb, the blood weakened, the digestion disordered, she goes about palefaced, hollow-eyed and haggard, a piteous contrast to the blooming health of hear former self. But over 1,000,000 women havefound health again by taking Wine of Cardui. As a regulator of the menstrual periods Wine of Cardui has never been known to fail. It has seldom failed to restore perfect health, even in the most persistent and aggravated case of weakness. Miss Ida M. Snyder, of No. 535 Bergen Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., has used Wine of Cardui and she says it helped her into a new life. Health to Miss Snyder is worth a great deal. She is an attractive young woman with intellectual attainments and she occupies the position of Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. This position marks her as a person of intellect, output and refinement and it speaks highly of the respect and trust her fellow women have in her. She writes:
